

Volunteer Opportunity: English to French Translator

Application Deadline: June 5, 2026

Organization: Greater Nation Arts Collective

The Greater Nation Arts Collective (GNAC) is a growing not-for-profit arts organization committed to fostering creativity, connection, and high-quality performing arts opportunities in the community.

Greater Nation Arts Collective is seeking a volunteer English to French Translator to help make our website more accessible to Francophone audiences. This is a virtual position and a great opportunity to support community arts, improve bilingual access, and contribute your language skills to a growing arts organization.

Responsibilities

- Translate website content from English to French accurately and clearly.
- Help ensure translated content is culturally appropriate and easy to understand.
- Work with the Greater Nation Arts Collective team to clarify wording and maintain tone and meaning.
- Review and revise translations as needed before publication.

Qualifications

- Fluency in both English and French, with strong written communication skills.
- Experience in translation, editing, or bilingual communications is an asset.
- Attention to detail and ability to preserve meaning, tone, and clarity.
- Interest in arts, culture, and community engagement is an asset.
- Ability to work independently in a virtual environment.

Commitment and Details

This is an unpaid volunteer position and can be completed remotely. The time commitment is flexible and will depend on the amount of website content to be translated. Volunteers will work collaboratively with the team and can contribute on a schedule that fits their availability.

How to Apply

If you are passionate about language, accessibility, and the arts, we would love to hear from you. Please submit your resume and a brief introduction outlining your experience with English and French translation and your interest in supporting Greater Nation Arts Collective to info@greaternationarts.ca by June 5, 2026.
